HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Docked For Lost Time.
Mark Twain in his humorous lecture on the Sandwick Islands tells this story in illustration of earnestness:

"A company in Lower California had a man at work drilling and blasting rocks. He had drilled a hole about four feet deep, set in the charge, and tapping it down with an iron bar about nine feet long, when a premature explosion took place. Up went the man, still clasping the iron bar, till he looked no larger than a boy; up, up, till he looked no larger than a bee; he continued to descend, till he looked as a doll; near he came, and looked the size of a boy, down, down, till—strange to relate—he struck the very tracks he stood before, and resumed his work as if nothing had happened. You wouldn't believe it, was so mean, but that man wasn't gone from his work fifteen minutes, yet the company docked him for lost time."

MONDAY, EVENING,
Oct. 24, 1870.

Business, in a general way, continues restricted, and we have no quotable changes to note since our last semi-weekly review. The demand for flour, and all kinds of produce except oats and hay, is purely local, and with but few orders coming in, the requirements of the trade are unusually light.

Receipts of flour, though not as large as they were a few weeks since, are still far in excess of the wants of the trade, and as a consequence are nearly all going into store. We have not heard of a sale on track for the past week.

There is some demand for oats and hay, and all desirable lots find good sale at unchanged prices. All other kinds of produce are in fair local demand, and of which particulars are given elsewhere in our columns.

Flour—Continues very much depressed, and receivers are largely accumulating. Prices do not vary from those given in our last, but are altogether nominal and the sales are very meager.

There were reported:
100 bbls choice family, from store..... $ 7.75
210 " X from store, 2 lots 4.60

THE CAIRO BULLETIN, OCTOBER 25.

OLD DR. HEATH'S

Many years' experience in curing consumption, Dyspepsia, emaciation, piles, disease of the Liver, Blood, skin, and urinary organs, disclosed the secret of their success, and now known to be easily cured by after-curing them of seminal weakness. Inhalation, caustics, tonics, stimulants, hypophosphites, mercury, epoxides, etc., are useless, and many ordinary remedies have proved worse than useless.

EVIDENCE PROVING

Treatment Superior to all others.

I deem it a duty to say you cured three cases of consumption, after other remedies failed, and two of Typhoid Fever in the later stage. I will send you my bill.

JAMES PETERS, M. D., Canada West.

Y. R. RICHARDSON, Conn.

After having been treated by professors and many eminent physicians without benefit for indigestion, dizziness, heart affection, congestion, disease of the lungs, Liver, kidneys, etc., and other diseases, I am now in perfect health.

F. STIBER, N. Y.

My wife's case was considered hopeless by all the physicians, but by the blessing of the Almighty you restored her to health. A thousand thanks.

E. H. FORD, Conn.

Elizabeth Ford, Conn.

Her medicine is the greatest ever discovered by man. They cured my son of Bronchitis, dyspepsia, and so forth. Our Doctor and ourselves gave up all hope.

W. M. STEPHENS, Sandusky City, O.

You relieved me of pain and restored my urine to its natural color, etc.

H. H. ROCK, Sharon, Vt.

You cured me of disease of ten years standing. I suffered terribly before I took your medicine.

JOS. BARTLETT, Burlington, N. J.

Your medicine cured me so rapidly, I would give you a thousand dollars for it.

J. BLACKSTONE, Jr., Apple River, Ill.

I feel grateful to you, as I was not expected to live when I commenced your medicine.

M. H. JADDEN, Milwaukee, Wis.

The swelling that affected my wife is entirely removed by your medicine.

W. H. MORSE, Rockford, Ill.

You cured me of a disease of thirty years standing.

ALEX. MOOREHEAD, Quincy, O.

You removed my tumor, etc., and made me strong again.

MADIS WRIGHT, Wright's Landing, Wis.

I have been well about a year from the medcine you sent me.

Mrs. H. WILKINSON, Rockford, Ill.

Three physicians said I could not be helped last Fall, but your medicine restored my health.

Mr. R. C. COON, Duxbury, Conn.

The young man you sent me has had a hopeless case of three years standing. He could not live on himself for two years.

J. DEARHORN, Lyndon, Ill.

I had the liver complaint, dyspepsia, and vomiting five years ago, and you have wonderfully improved me.

S. VANTRIE, Columbus, Ohio.

He forwarded to me a sample of your medicine, and I have used it with great satisfaction.

GEORGE HARRIS, Louisville, Ky.

My side is well.

PRENTISS ASHBY, Pequannock, N. J.

I have no more to say, but I thank you.

CHARLES GRIMMEL, New York.

I had a severe attack of bronchitis, and you

removed it
